Foreword

"Step right up, folks! See the greatest show on earth!" yells the barker of our carnival midway.

Our 1950 Artisan theme is derived from the midway of a carnival as our class is graduated in the midway of the century. May this Yearbook serve as a record of our high school days and help us to remember the happy times we have had walking down the midway together—may it be an enduring reminder to keep alive the fires of friendship which were kindled at Mechanicsburg High.

Appreciation

In appreciation of the help and cooperation so willingly given us by our capable advisers, Mrs. Elizabeth Orris and Mr. Carl Hamsher, we of the Artisan Staff take this means of saying a public "Thank You" to them. Without their guidance and untiring efforts, this book would not have been possible.

We would like, also, to thank all the other members of the Mechanicsburg High School faculty who have helped with this production.

The Editors

M. H. S. at Mid-Century

Midway in the century is a fitting time for alumni and student body to think of the history of a great school.

The old Washington Fire House served as the first Mechanicsburg High School building until the red brick building on High Street was completed in 1893. Later, sewing machines and kitchens were installed and the shop and Gymnasium were added.

The cornerstone of the modern building was laid in 1930, with an impressive Masonic ceremony.

In 1937 the Agricultural Vocational Building was erected.

The newest additions to MHS are the Home Economics Cottage, completed in the fall of 1949, and additional rooms made available to high school classes by the purchase of the grade school building on York Street.

Members of the class of 1950 look forward to seeing another half century of progress in the field of education at Mechanicsburg High School.

Senior Class History

The year was 1947, and we realized that we were finally in Senior High School! David Coover led our class as President, with Scott Koser as Vice-President; Pat Hartman, Secretary-Treasurer; and Grace Mumma, Student Council Representative. We had a grand time planning our class assembly, under the leadership of our homeroom teachers.

Next came 1948, and we had our first chance to show our stuff! We presented the play, "Elmer and the Lovebug" under the direction of the Sophomore Class dean, Miss Bessie Bear, both as the high school assembly and as the Susquehanna Township exchange assembly. We selected our class rings, and attended the Sophomore Class party. Our able class officers were Fritz Orris, President; Charles Alexander, Vice-President; Joan Gilbert, Secretary-Treasurer; and Grace Mumma, Student Council Representative.

Then 1949, and we were really forging ahead. Dave Coover was elected Junior Class President; Don Badorf, Vice-President; Beverly Neff, Secretary-Treasurer; and Grace Mumma, Student Council Representative. Our class play, "And Came the Spring" under the direction of Miss Mary Ann Kemper, proved to be a great hit. Can we ever forget the Junior Class assembly featuring Luigi Basco, Pasqualli, and Rosa? We received our class rings, and were greatly honored when eight of our classmates were elected to the National Honor Society. The great hit of the year was the Junior Prom, when we entertained the Seniors at The Allenberry with music by Fred B. Harry, Jr.'s orchestra.

Now at last it is 1950 and our days at MHS are over. Again Dave Coover was elected President; and Jack Jordan, Vice-President; Scott Koser, Secretary-Treasurer; and Grace

Mumma, Student Council Representative. We started the year off with a bang selling hot dogs, candy and soft-drinks at the football refreshment stand. Magazine and candy sales zoomed, and new additions were made to the school in the form of maroon and steel jackets. The new Home Economics Cottage was opened, and a housewarming was held during the annual school exhibit. Thirteen football stars and two managers had played their last game on Thanksgiving Day. Our Senior play, "Almost Summer," under the direction of Mrs. Mildred Mason, was the best yet. The final events of the year were the Junior Prom, our never-to-be-forgotten Class Day, and, above all, Commencement exercises. Only then did we realize that our years at MHS were at an end.

CLASS

We, the members of the Senior Class of 1950, being of sound mind, memory and understanding; do make, publish, and declare this, our last will and testament, hereby revoking and making void all former wills made by us at any time.

We will our grateful affection and appreciation to the faculty, who have been our patient advisers through the years.

We bequeath, to certain worthy individuals the following:

To the diplomat of the class of '51, Don Badorf's Student Council Presidency.

Charles Alexander's muscles to Ray Kreitzer.

Paul Baddorf's skill in logarithms to the math whiz of '51.

Fritz Orris's height to Ronnie Pease.

Lee Cronican's place in the trumpet section to Dick Snelbaker.

Mary Ann Fanus's high score in magazine sales to the best salesman of '51.

Peg Gill's grin we'll take with us to brighten the coming years.

Mary Hartman's P.O.D. excused periods to Mr. Kelley's next secretary.

Pat Hartman's quiet nature to Margery Orris.

Merve Hoffman's bantam physique to Dan Rupp.

Skip Hutter's wonderful alibies for being late to French class to all the French classes in the years to come.

Dan Kennedy's artistic ability to Joyce Kegel.

Jack Kintz's ears to the Dunbo of the Junior Class.

Charles Kohlhaas's trips to Lemoyne to anyone who has bus fare.

Jack Koser's remarks in advanced algebra to anyone brave enough to make them.

Mike Kost's blush to Dolores Weaver.

Barb Low's clothes we'll allow her to keep for her modeling career.

Eggy Miller's glasses to Charles Zigenfuss.

Harry Mohler's red nose to Don Sechrist.

Gracie Mumma's amazing record as Student Council Representative for her class to anyone who can equal it.

Dorcas Nye's ability to read palms to the fortune teller of '51.

WILL

Bethann Painter's green Chevy we'll let her keep, since she only has a half interest in it.

Emery Brown's motor scooter to Marlin Beck, so he can start a bus service.

Bill Billet's nickname to any Junior who looks like a Penguin.

Harold Ryder's ability to make girls swoon to George Cuthbert.

George Shearer's Cadillac to anyone who can pay for the gas.

Eleanor Stansfield's Cheerleader Captaincy to the best cheerleader of '51.

Helena Wilson's deep voice to Joyce Foltz.

Don Barbour's height to Lee Eckert.

Audrey Bair, Gretchen Berkheimer, and Mary Ardis' troubles with "the powers that be" to the Three Musketeers of the class of '51.

Audrey Branning's "A's" in French to Monsieur Brownawell.

Dave Coover's curly red hair to Bob Hosler.

Marjorie Brandt's position as Editor-in-Chief of the Torch to any Junior lucky (or unlucky) enough to be appointed.

Donnie Cornman's ability on the gridiron, we'll keep as a fond memory of the Football classics of our high school years.

Janet Corman's majorette baton to the next high-stepper for the band.

Ed Forney's droll sense of humor to Bob Jones.

Herb Gibney's Pontiac we'll let him keep for his numerous trips to the Harrisburg Hospital.

Esther Goodling's personality can't be duplicated, but we'll give a facsimile of it to Maria Turo.

Doug Hoskins amazing ability to irritate Miss Zimmerman to Bob Wise.

We'll let Ronald Klair's father keep the store.

Joyce Gardner's American flag to the strongest girl in the Color Guard.

Bill Kyle's French horn to anyone with a French accent.

Joan Gilbert's dancing ability to Ruth Jackson.

Scott Koser's ability to take orders from basketball coaches to Ronnie Pease.

Similies of Janet Bricker's National Honor Society pin to the Junior members of the Society.

Esther Fertenbaugh's amazing driving ability we'll try to take away from her. There are enough accidents on the highway already.

Curvin Gochenour's boldness to the shrinking violets of the class of '51; Fred Putney and Ernest Bowen's remarks they'll keep to themselves!

FRITZ ORRIS

Class

Being a good friend of the class of 1950, I do hereby predict the following oodles of good fortune to some of its most promising members.

Looking into my crystal ball, I can see the future before me. View before you the future lives of your classmates by looking deep into the crystal ball. Ah! It's getting clearer now . . . we can now see none but our own Marjorie Black as a professional musician with the Philadelphia Symphony Orchestra . . . Ernest Bowen appears—ah, yes, he's writing his own comic strip for "The Evening News." . . . Jane Diehl is a comptometer operator for a big firm in New York . . . Bonnie Perviance is now the office secretary to Mr. Koch at MHS . . . Pat White is working as a private secretary to Bill Kile . . . Margretta Stambaugh is doing "Homework" . . . Office work is doing O.K. by our shy Janet Bricker . . . John Sheely has a huge farm of his own on good old R.D.3 . . . Don Yocum does all of his butchering for him . . . Fred Baddorf has his own garage and repair shop . . . Doris Wareham is a housewife happily looking after her six little ones . . . An Army man is our Robert Rosenkranse . . . Ivan Meals is still listening to those baseball and football games . . . Swabbing the deck aboard ship in the Navy we find Paul Keefer and Quay Hamilton . . . Housewives three will probably be Maggie Zimmerman, Barbara Rodenhiser and Shirley Gill . . . maybe Lois Weigel, too . . . Still coming in three's we find Betty Bardall, Pearl Kramer and Betty Klinger as winsome secretaries . . . Fred Putney is working away on his farm on R.D.1 . . . Shirley Myers is a filing clerk . . . R.N.'s at Polyclinic are Florence Hertzler, Lois Monismith, Darlene Kirkland and Marian Weber . . . Albert Wolfe is still sleeping, but as a Sergeant in the Army . . . Here's someone jaywalking on the street in Harrisburg. The tall policewoman stopping him is none other than Sheila Conway . . . Here's our little Jeanne Eckert as a receptionist for a big firm in Harrisburg . . . A farmer we see turns out to be Raymond Boyer . . . Arlene Hertzler is happy pounding away at a typewriter all day . . . Mary Sheller is back at MHS again, but this time as a Home Economics teacher . . . Ruth Fogle has set up the latest thing in beauty shops in Harrisburg . . . Marlene Durston and Inez Burns make two efficient stenographers . . . Grace Corbe is off to Tibet as a foreign missionary . . . Edith Harlan is doing office work . . . What's this? Fred Kimmel and Don Miller are co-owners of a huge stock and dairy farm . . . Barbara Greigor, Harriet Baker, and Ruth Bricker are happily married. A sweet little lady telling stories to the children of the orphanage is Dotty Cooper . . . Gochenour, Heller, Keller, and Kohler, Inc. Machine Shop are enlarging their plant on East Simpson Street . . . Georgie Grunigen is back from another trip abroad, next stop—India . . . Nancy Eckert is now Superintendent of the Bell Telephone Operators . . . Bill Lehmer is the head bookkeeper there . . . Harry Fields has just been promoted to Commanding Officer of the Army of Occupation in Moscow . . . Etta Brown, Frances Capp and Althea Kipp are all private secretaries for big firms while Treva Coover is a typist for MGM studios . . . Another of our very prominent farmers is Guy Deitch who has just decided to enlarge his brooder house. . .

Looking into another side of my crystal ball, I see several graduates undertaking the task of becoming bookkeepers . . . they are—Anna McAllister, Dorcas Winand and Ruth Weber . . . Audrey Stewart is keeping at those typewriter keys working for an old Bostonian firm. . . . Here we see Pauline Shields as secretary, sitting on her gray-haired boss' knee, taking shorthand . . . Ray Trimmer is an officer worker for the New Hampshire Publishing Co. . . . Fay Stoner is making quite an impression upon everyone as receptionist at the Astoria Hotel . . .

A couple of fellows who can't make up their minds yet are Henry Moore and Paul Loscher . . . On the domestic side of the crystal ball I find Winifred Myers as a happy housewife . . . Ray Shumaker is doing O.K. as a mechanic. . . . Daniel Ritter is a good butcher for the New Jersey Meat Market . . . Nevin Nailor is accomplishing the great task of draftsmanship . . . Oh, yes, Richard Rife is a gas attendant at the Midway Gas Station on the Pennsylvania Turnpike . . . I also see a Bell Telephone Operator in New York by the name of Miriam Messinger.

Ruth Miller has decided to just work, but not too hard, we hope . . . Last, but not least, here is Don Peak as the proud owner of a 1000 acre farm in Massachusetts.

So there's my prophecy students . . . don't fail me in making it all come true.

Class History

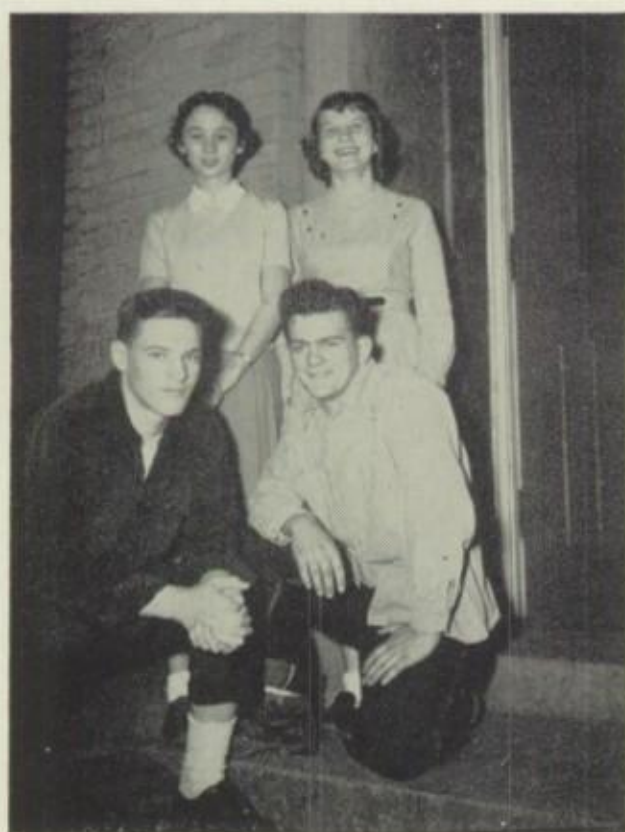

Under the direction of such efficient leadership as President, George Cuthbert; Vice-President, Ben Whitcomb; Secretary-Treasurer, Maria Turo; Student Council Representative, Joanne Rider; and Mr. Guy L. Vogelsong, class dean, the class of '51 first made their debut in their Freshman year with an assembly program. They also enjoyed a Freshman party.

As Sophomores, George Cuthbert was again elected President, Ben Whitcomb, Vice-President; Maria Turo, Secretary-Treasurer; Dolores Weaver, Student Council; with Miss Bessie Bear as class dean.

At last, in their Junior year they received their class rings and began to be "wheels." One of the biggest events of their Junior year was their play, "Smart Alec," with Miss Margaret Fahringer as director. This year's officers were George Cuthbert, President; Ben Whitcomb, Vice-President; Marilyn Heiges, Secretary-Treasurer; Glenn Bricker, Student Council Representative; and Mrs. Elizabeth Lassen, Adviser.

Class History

As Freshmen, the class of '52 was preparing for great things to come. Like other Freshman classes, they had their class party and assembly programs. Their class officers were President, Glenn Wolfe; Vice-President, Dorothy Arlene Stine; Secretary-Treasurer, Margaret Heath; Student Council Representative, Shirley Tressler, and class dean, Mr. Guy L. Vogelsong.

The "All Star" class ring was chosen in their Sophomore year, and they presented the annual class play under the direction of Miss Bessie Bear. Their officers for this year were Glenn Wolfe, President; Ann Parsell, Vice-President; Victor Barr, Secretary-Treasurer; Shirley Tressler, Student Council Representative; and Miss Bear, class dean. Their class party was a record dance.

Varsity Basketball

The 1950 basketball season was one of the best MHS has seen in seven years. The Cats won 8 games and lost 11 during the season, a .421 percentage of victories.

In the South Penn Conference Mechanicsburg was tie for fourth place with six wins, eight defeats, and a .428 percent average.

Sonny Jacobs led the Courtsters in top scoring position with 213 points. Don Badorf, Honorary Captain, was second with 179 points. Vic Emil and Ron Parks followed with 158 and 133 points respectively. Don Cornman, one of the starting five, was the Wildcats' key defensive player, although he was not high on the scoring list.

Junior Varsity Basketball

The Mechanicsburg High Junior Basketball Team had a difficult time getting started. They dropped their first four non-conference games to John Harris, Steelton twice, and the Alumni respectively. Starting conference competition they lost the first four contests. Carlisle, Waynesboro, Shippensburg, and Hershey dealt the defeats to the Wild Kittens. The J.V.'s then won over Gettysburg by a close score. Chambersburg and Hanover also defeated the Junior Varsity.

On the second time around John Harris added another victory at the expense of the J.V.'s. Carlisle and Waynesboro proved too much for the Junior varsity again. The Wild Kittens won their second game from Shippensburg's Junior Varsity. The last four games were bad ones for the J.V.'s—Hershey, Gettysburg, Chambersburg, and Hanover defeated them successively.
